MEMORANDUM.

WAR OFFICE, 3rd May, 1844.

Any Officer holding a Commission in Her Majesty's Army, who has received the Royal permission to accept and wear a Foreign Order, will, on transmitting the necessary documents to the Secretary at War, have his name recorded in the Army List, as having established his claim to wear the same.

CIRCULAR. No. 927.

WAR OFFICE, 4th May, 1844.

I HAVE the honor to transmit for your information and guidance an amended Warrant, regulating the provision of Clothing, Great Coats, Accoutrements, and Appointments for Corps of Infantry; and I have at the same time to call your attention to the following alterations contained therein:—

1.—Bear-skin Caps are discontinued in Clause 6, as applicable to Grenadier and Fuzileer Companies of Regiments of the Line, the ordinary Regimental Cap being substituted in such Companies.

2.—In Corps wearing Highland Clothing, the Colonel's annual contribution towards the provision of those Articles of Equipment which were formerly supplied in kind, but are now included among the Soldier's necessaries, has been increased, in Regiments wearing the kilt, to Fifteen Shillings and Sixpence for Serjeants, and to Eight Shillings and Sixpence for Men of other Ranks; and in Regiments wearing the trews, to Thirteen Shillings and Sixpence for Serjeants, and to Six Shillings and Sixpence for Men of other Ranks.

It is intended by this alteration, that the allowance should more nearly correspond with the value of the articles to be provided, as well as with the charge to which the Colonel was formerly liable, when he supplied those articles in kind. In making this adjustment, however, the total rate of compensation for the entire Clothing has not been disturbed, as the valuation prices of some other Articles of Clothing admitted of a reduction.

3.—In the Ceylon Rifle Regiment, an allowance is granted to the Soldier in lieu of Boots, which it is found can be more conveniently furnished on the Station.

4.—In the 8th Clause an alteration has been made, prescribing an earlier period for dispatching the Clothing for Regiments in North America, so that it may be always brought into wear at the time prescribed by Regulation.

5.—By Clause 12 the Colonel is absolved from the expense, to which he was formerly subject, of Inland carriage, in forwarding the Clothing and Accoutrements furnished by him to the Head Quarters of a Corps, or to a Detachment on a Foreign Station, if the Station be more than twenty miles from the Port of Debarkation.

6.—By the late Warrant it was provided, that when no part-worn Clothing was in store available for Recruits, the Men who enlisted between the 15th April and the 31st December were to receive new Clothing from the Colonel, but were to be charged in their accounts with the value thereof, minus the regulated compensation for as many months as might be due to them for the unexpired part of the year; viz. from the respective dates of their final approval, to the date when the next year's Clothing would become due.

This Regulation having been found to operate severely in some cases, particularly in regard to men enlisting in the latter end of a year, who have unavoidably been subject to heavy stoppages on that account; it is provided in Clause 13 of the present Warrant, that Recruits enlisted in the months immediately preceding January, but not joining the Ranks from drill before that month, shall be treated as Recruits enlisting on or after the 1st January, and receive Clothing on account of the following year, which Clothing is to be worn from January to the end of the subsequent military year, the Recruit receiving the regulated compensation in money from the date of his final approval to the 31st March following.

This provision will therefore, in general, obviate the necessity of furnishing new Clothing to Recruits, when wanted to be worn only during the last half of the military year, or even for a few months.

7.—Commanding Officers should likewise forbid Recruits being placed under Stoppages for Articles of Clothing or necessaries, not actually required by them before they join the Ranks; and if any partly worn Articles can be found, the same should be furnished, rather than the Recruit should be placed in debt to his Captain.

A due attention to these Rules will prevent the necessity of placing a recruit under heavy stoppages, to cover a debt incurred immediately after joining his Regiment—a circumstance which cannot fail to be discouraging to young Soldiers.

8.—Clause 16 contains some rules relative to the claims for Clothing of Soldiers who have been confined under sentence of a Civil or Military Court.

9.—Clause 17 contains a provision relative to the Clothing of Serjeants newly appointed.

10.—In Clause 20, besides the alterations already adverted to in the second paragraph, as made in the scale of compensation for Highland Clothing, there are some changes in the rates of allowance to be made for certain Articles of Clothing in Infantry generally, in order that the rates may correspond more nearly with the relative value of the Articles, but without affecting the total rates of compensation for the respective Ranks, which remain the same in all cases.

11.—In Clause 21, under the head of Necessaries, the Turnscrew and Worm, and Gun-stopper are omitted in the Schedule, those Articles being now supplied by the Board of Ordnance. The Brush and Picker, not being required for Percussion Arms, are also discontinued.

12.—It is directed, in Clauses 22 and 23, that Soldiers shall not be placed under Stoppages, without special authority previously obtained from the Secretary at War, or the Commander of the Forces, for any Article of Necessaries or Equipment other than those established by Regulation, nor for the purpose of providing or replacing any Article of Clothing not required to be paid for by the Soldier, unless such Stoppage be rendered necessary by gross negligence or wilful damage on the part of the Man. And I have to observe that, in the case of a well conducted Recruit, it is desirable that the Stoppage should not exceed 2*d.* a day, which it is considered will be found ample to pay for any article immediately wanted, and which may not be covered by his Bounty.

13.—Clause 24 declares the maximum Stoppage to which the Pay of a Soldier is liable for Necessaries. The attention of Commanding Officers should be constantly directed to the enforcement of this Regulation, and to that in the same Clause, which limits the power of stopping the pay of Soldiers in advance towards the provision of Necessaries, to particular occasions only, as therein described.

14.—Clauses from 27 to 31 contain some additional rules relative to the provision of Necessaries at the Head Quarters, and to the duties of keeping the Store and Accounts thereof.

15.—In Clauses 37, 39 and 40, are added some further rules respecting the Returns of Great Coats to be made by each Regiment, the delivery of unserviceable Great Coats into Store, and the issue of new ones, to which rules the attention of Commanding Officers should be given, so that these Public Stores may be accurately accounted for. And to this end, and that the proper Officer may be held responsible whenever any Great Coats are missing, care should be taken always to forward a Transfer Return, in the prescribed Form, whenever Great Coats are transferred from one Corps or Division of a Regiment to another.

16.—Clause 42 directs all Accoutrements and Appointments to be marked, as far as practicable, with the date of the year in which issued.

17.—I take this opportunity of stating that, upon a comparison of prices at present paid by Regiments at various Stations at Home for the several Articles of Regimental Necessaries, it has been ascertained that, with proper economy, the full equipment of a Recruit with every article in the established schedule, ought not to exceed in a Regiment of Infantry of the Line, Three Guineas, nor in a Highland Corps, Five Guineas.

18.—To meet this Expenditure, a new Distribution of Levy Money will be issued under the Authority of the Commander-in-Chief, so arranged that the Recruit of an ordinary Regiment of Infantry will receive a sum of £3 10*s.* if enlisted in a Recruiting District, in the shape of final Bounty—or a Bounty of £4 if enlisted at the Head Quarters of his Regiment.

19.—Recruits for Highland Corps, being liable to a much heavier expense than other Recruits for the first provision of their Necessaries, which includes the National Equipment peculiar to those Corps—will receive a Special Allowance of One Pound Five Shillings each in aid of his Equipment, and in lieu of the extra Bounty of Ten Shillings formerly granted. But this Allowance is not to be issued until the Recruit is certified to be fit for Duty as a Soldier, and the amount is to be held liable to be recredited to the Public out of the Man's effects, should he not remain effective Twelve Months in the Regiment.

This Allowance, added to the Recruit's final Bounty and to the Colonel's Contribution of 8*s.* 6*d.* towards the provision of Highland Articles, will, if the Man be enlisted in a District, amount together to the sum of £5 3*s.* 6*d.*, and if he be a Head Quarter Recruit to £5 13*s.* 6*d.*, so that with proper care and attention little or no Debt should be incurred by a Highland Recruit on first enlistment.

20.—I have to add, that the following Rules have been laid down for the remuneration of Colonels for the expense of Clothing Supernumerary Men, whenever it may happen that such Men have been occasionally raised or borne on the strength of their respective Regiments by proper authority; but which Rules, not being of general application, have not been included in the Clothing Regulations: viz.—

For the highest number of Effectives above the Establishment, borne on the Monthly Returns between 1st April and 30th June, the full Annual Off-reckonings for each Man	2	6	0
For any further Excess between 1st July and 30th September, two-thirds of the Off-reckonings	1	10	8
For any further Excess between 1st October and 31st December, one-half	1	3	0
For any further Excess between 1st January and 31st March, one-sixth	0	7	8

subject to the deduction of Off-reckonings for any Serjeant or Drummer borne on the Establishment but not Effective for any part of the same year.

I have the honor to be,
Your most obedient,
Humble Servant,
H. HARDINGE.

Colonel of the Regiment of Foot.

FORAGE.

CIRCULAR. No. 934.

WAR-OFFICE, 30th September, 1844.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Secretary at War to annex, for your information and guidance, a Statement of the Daily Rates of Allowance to General and other Staff Officers, and to Field and Staff Officers of Infantry Regiments, in lieu of Forage for the Horses required to be kept by them for the Public Service, for the Half-year from the 1st April, 1844, to the 30th September, 1844, agreeably to which the Charges for Forage will be allowed.

I am to add, that if a Charge at a different Rate has been already made, the same should be corrected according to the said Statement.

I have, &c.

(Signed) E. MARSHALL.

Officer Commanding

GENERAL ORDER.

No. 572.

Horse Guards, 28th October, 1844.

COMPLAINTS having reached the Commander-in-Chief of the great expense attending the Regimental Messes of the Officers of the several Regiments, and the Commander-in-Chief being sensible of the great inconvenience and injury to a numerous class of most meritorious Officers, who cannot afford to incur such expenses, from his recollection of the long experience he acquired by the exercise of the command of a Regiment for many years in Garrisons, Cantonments, and the Field; and adverting, moreover, to the gracious consideration of a late Sovereign, and to the handsome provision made by Parliament to supply with Wine the Officers of the Army, and to enable them to consume that article without pecuniary inconvenience, it is his duty to draw the attention, to the subject, of the General Officers of the Army, and of the Commanding Officers of Regiments.

His Grace accordingly desires, that Commanding Officers of Regiments, Battalions, and Depôts, will call the attention of the Mess Committee of Officers, in each, to the necessity of forming an Estimate, at the commencement of every three months, viz. January, April, July and October,—of the expense of keeping the Mess Table for the Officers of the Station, including therein, attendance, maintenance of Table Linen, the expense of Wine, Beer, and Provisions of all sorts.

That the fourth of the allowance paid by the Public for Wine shall be carried to account against the amount of this Estimate.

That the allowance of Wine supposed to be consumed by each individual Member of the Mess shall be fixed, and the balance of the expense shall be divided among the number of Members of the Mess present; and the Commanding Officer will, with that information before him, fix the Weekly amount for the Messing, including the stated allowance of Wine for each Officer; and it must be clearly understood, that no Officer can be called upon to defray a larger expense than that thus required to defray the charge of this Estimate.

The Commander-in-Chief does not take upon himself to specify what Wines the Officers of the Army shall drink, of what quality, or in what quantity; but that on which he does insist is, that none shall be required to defray the expense of such Wine excepting those who choose it. Those who have dined at the table of the Messes of Officers know, that there are well understood means of informing the Officers of a Regiment of the moment at which the allowance of the day has been consumed; and those who do not choose to incur further expense should then be expected to depart.

Officers may choose to invite one or more friends to dine with them, for whom, and the expense of their entertainment, the inviter alone must be responsible.

Digitized by Google

The Corps of Officers may think proper to invite to dine an individual, or another Corps of Officers, and to give upon such occasion a more expensive dinner, or to have more expensive Wines than at the usual Mess Dinner; but all the expense upon such occasions beyond the usual estimated charge, whether on account of Dinner, Attendance, or Wine, must be defrayed, exclusively, by those who may think proper to affix their names to a paper, notifying the intention of some to give such entertainment; and the Commander-in-Chief desires that it may be clearly understood by Commanding Officers of Regiments, Battalions, and Depôts, that His Grace requires them to give their special countenance and protection to those who may, from any motive, decline to be parties to incurring such expenses.

It has long been the practice of the Army for Officers upon joining a Regiment, to subscribe a fixed sum to purchase, or defray the charge of, the Mess Utensils; and it is positively required in page 125 of the General Regulations, that no part of the Wine-money shall be applied to this purpose; but it is to be clearly understood, that, excepting the limited subscription above referred to, no Officer can be called upon to pay more, on account of Mess Expenses, than the weekly amount fixed to defray the Balance of the Three Monthly Estimate of the expense of keeping the Mess Table, as hereby ordered.

The General Officers who will inspect Regiments, are particularly requested to attend to, and report upon, the execution of the Provisions of this General Order, and they will mention in their respective Reports the amount of the weekly charge of the Mess of each Officer.

By Command of
FIELD MARSHAL THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON,
Commander-in-Chief;

JOHN MACDONALD, Adjutant-General.
